ABOUT THE RILEY SANDLER MEMORIAL FOUNDATION

The Riley Sandler Memorial Foundation was established on August 19, 2014 by Mackenzie and Ian Sandler to honor the life of their nine year old daughter Riley Hannah Sandler. Riley was set to enter fourth grade at the Nightingale-Bamford School and, on the last night of her first year as a freshman girl at Timber Lake Camp, Riley went into respiratory arrest and died on August 18, 2014.

The organization's mission is to carry forward Riley's spirit and love of life by instilling her kindness, caring, compassion and empathy – indeed, her magic – in other children. Through her foundation, Riley's legacy will be honored by taking direct action to help children in need, as well as supporting children facing major obstacles to reach their full potential.
