VISHNICK McGOVERN MILIZIO LLP ANNOUNCES: NEW HIRE/PROMOTION/COMMITTEE CHAIRPERSON

Firm Administrator Theresa DeStasio is pleased to announce the promotion of one staff member and the hiring of another by the Lake Success-based law firm Vishnick McGovern Milizio LLP (VMM).

Promoted from receptionist to legal assistant in the Elder Law Practice Group is Howard Beach-resident, Kathleen Romaniello-Vera. Ms. Romaniello-Vera provides assistance to the firm's attorneys practicing Elder Law, particularly in the preparation of institutional and community-based Medicaid applications. She often communicates with clients during the gathering of documents required for the filing of benefits. Before joining VMM in February 2013, Ms. Romaniello-Vera was a student at The Allen School in Jamaica, NY and freelanced as an administrative professional.

Assuming the role of receptionist is Queens Village-resident Nancy Casseus, whose duties include handling incoming calls; ordering and inventory of office supplies; data entry; client relations; and office preparation for meetings and other gatherings. Previously, Ms. Casseus was the headquarters receptionist for the Garden City Group in Lake Success, NY. Earlier in her career, she spent over seventeen years in various sales support positions with WFAN Sports Radio.

In other news, Ms. DeStasio, a resident of Whitestone and a member of the Association of Legal Administrators, Long Island Chapter (ALA-Long Island), has been elected by the organization as 2017-2019 co-chairperson of its Public Relations/Membership committee. In this capacity, she and her committee are responsible for informing the legal community about the benefits of ALA membership and promoting the chapter, with an emphasis on increasing membership.
